

One important issue, however, that needs to be addressed is how to provide Social Security and Medicare coverage to hazardous duty employees working for the county and the city. Since January 6, 2003, all officers are considered a single group for Social Security coverage purposes. Prior to the merger some police officers and firefighters contributed to Medicare, but not Social Security. Some contributed to both; others neither.

As we can see, ensuring fair and equal coverage presents a serious challenge to the new government. After working with all interested parties, it was agreed that a divided retirement system is the solution. Currently 21 states use this system.

Under a divided retirement system, each employee will decide whether or not to pay into Social Security. All new employees hired after the system is in place would automatically be enrolled in Social Security.

The Kentucky Division of Social Security has started the education process with representatives from the Social Security Administration and the groups that represents the hazardous duty employees. Last year, the Kentucky General Assembly adopted a bill that allows this system to go forward as soon as Congress approves this legislation and President Bush signs it into law.

In closing, I would like to thank Chairman SHAW and Ranking Member MATSUI for including this important provision in H.R. 743 and urge my colleagues to support the bill.

Mr. SHAW. Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. GILCREST). The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Florida (Mr. SHAW) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 743, as amended.

The question was taken.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. In the opinion of the Chair, two-thirds of those present have voted in the affirmative.

Mr. DOGGETT. Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8, rule XX and the Chair's prior announcement, further proceedings on this motion will be postponed.

The point of no quorum is considered withdrawn.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. SHAW. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks on H.R. 743.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Florida?

There was no objection.

(1) The increased security and safety concerns that developed in the aftermath of the terrorist attacks in the United States on September 11, 2001, need to be addressed.

(2) One concern that has come to light is the vulnerability of the international bridges and tunnels along the United States borders.

(3) It is necessary to ensure that potentially dangerous vehicles are inspected prior to crossing these bridges and tunnels; however, currently these vehicles are not inspected until after they have crossed into the United States.

(4) Establishing Integrated Border Inspection Areas (IBIAs) would address these concerns by inspecting vehicles before they gained access to the infrastructure of international bridges and tunnels joining the United States and Canada.

(b) CREATION OF INTEGRATED BORDER INSPECTION AREAS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—The Commissioner of the Customs Service, in consultation with the Canadian Customs and Revenue Agency (CCRA), shall seek to establish Integrated Border Inspection Areas (IBIAs), such as areas on either side of the United States-Canada border, in which United States Customs officers can inspect vehicles entering the United States from Canada before they enter the United States, or Canadian Customs officers can inspect vehicles entering Canada from the United States before they enter Canada. Such inspections may include, where appropriate, employment of reverse inspection techniques.

(2) ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENT.—The Commissioner of Customs, in consultation with the Administrator of the General Services Administration when appropriate, shall seek to carry out paragraph (1) in a manner that minimizes adverse impacts on the surrounding community.

(3) ELEMENTS OF THE PROGRAM.—Using the authority granted by this section and under section 629 of the Tariff Act of 1930, the Commissioner of Customs, in consultation with the Canadian Customs and Revenue Agency, shall seek to—

(A) locate Integrated Border Inspection Areas in areas with bridges or tunnels with high traffic volume, significant commercial activity, and that have experienced backups and delays since September 11, 2001;

(B) ensure that United States Customs officers stationed in any such IBIA on the Canadian side of the border are vested with the maximum authority to carry out their duties and enforce United States law;

(C) ensure that United States Customs officers stationed in any such IBIA on the Canadian side of the border shall possess the same immunity that they would possess if they were stationed in the United States; and

(B) by inserting “or exit” after “port of entry”;

(3) in subsection (e), to read as follows:

“(e) STATIONING OF FOREIGN CUSTOMS AND AGRICULTURE INSPECTION OFFICERS IN THE UNITED STATES.—The Secretary of State, in coordination with the Secretary and the Secretary of Agriculture, may enter into agreements with any foreign country authorizing the stationing in the United States of customs and agriculture inspection officials of that country (if similar privileges are extended by that country to United States officials) for the purpose of insuring that persons and merchandise going directly to that country from the United States, or that have gone directly from that country to the United States, comply with the customs and other laws of that country governing the importation or exportation of merchandise. Any foreign customs or agriculture inspection official stationed in the United States under this subsection may exercise such functions, perform such duties, and enjoy such privileges and immunities as United States officials may be authorized to perform or are afforded in that foreign country by treaty, agreement or law.”; and

(4) by adding at the end the following:

“(g) PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES.—Persons designated to perform the duties of an officer of the Customs Service pursuant to section 1401(i) of this title shall be entitled to the same privileges and immunities as an officer of the Customs Service with respect to any actions taken by the designated person in the performance of such duties.”

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. CRANE) and the gentleman from Michigan (Mr. LEVIN) each will control 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. CRANE).

Mr. CRANE. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

I rise to support H.R. 1047, the Miscellaneous Trade and Technical Corrections Act, which is a compendium of trade provisions drawn largely from legislation introduced by individual Members. This bill has more than 350 such provisions and enjoys broad bipartisan support. The bill contains provisions involving the temporary suspension of duties on narrowly defined products, miscellaneous trade-related items, and technical corrections to the Trade and Development Act of 2000. The House passed substantially the same bill, but unfortunately no other action was taken. In essence, we have taken last year's bill, made technical changes, and added or dropped a few of the duty suspension provisions, all of which are known by the sponsoring Members and their staffs.

The most significant change has been removing the provision related to "Turkey Qualified Industrial Zones." I recall this provision received favorable comments from both sides of the aisle when the bill came to the floor last year. There is still strong support from Members for the provision. We are dropping the provision for the time being, but can consider it or a variant of the provision at some future time if appropriate.

There are several miscellaneous trade provisions in this bill that are noteworthy. The bill would make technical and clarifying corrections to provide benefits for Caribbean and sub-Saharan African countries. The preferential trade benefits for these countries would support U.S. trade policy to improve trade networks and opportunities for American firms while helping key American allies in the fight against terrorism and illegal drug traffic.

Finally, the bill would provide national trade-relation status to Serbia and Montenegro, which was revoked in 1992. The provisions included in this bill are noncontroversial, but that does not mean they are unimportant. Most of the products in the duty suspension provisions are those that American firms use as supplies or components of the products they manufacture. The purpose of this bill is to eliminate the burden that American firms have when buying these products so they can in turn lower their cost of production and thereby the cost to the consumer. In many instances these provisions will give our companies and their employees a fighting chance to compete.

This bill traditionally follows the same rules every Congress. The provisions have been thoroughly vetted and have no opposition. Both the Department of Commerce and International Trade Commission investigated the bills and contacted domestic industries. With the exception of a few of the miscellaneous provisions that have wide applicability, each provision has a de minimis cost under $500,000. Lastly, the administration confirms that all of the bills can be administered.

I strongly urge my colleagues to support this bill and to provide this assistance to American companies.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. LEVIN. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I shall consume.

I rise in support of this bill. It is substantially the same as we considered and passed last October. We passed it by a voice vote on suspension, and it reflects the basically noncontroversial nature of the legislation, and I believe we will have the same result today.

As mentioned, there are ground rules for bringing up this legislation agreed to by both parties. They are noncontroversial, and they carry a minimal cost. But because the cost is minimal does not mean these are unimportant items. They are basically technical and miscellaneous and, therefore, the name of the bill. But at times technical and miscellaneous changes can have a real impact on U.S. businesses, on workers, on farmers, and consumers.

This bill is of that nature. It suspends or reduces import duties on numerous items for which there are no American competitors, and it does correct instances where Customs has overcharged for import duties. The provisions that relate to import duties often concern items, as mentioned, that are inputs for domestic manufacturers and for their workers; and so therefore they benefit from these provisions. So as to most of them, these are items that should help us as we compete in this globalizing economy. Also included, and I am glad they are, provisions that relate to San Antonio Airport and some technical corrections that will strengthen both CBI and the AGOA programs.

There also is in here a provision about which a number of us have a very strong concern regarding the reverse Customs program at the northern border. Some of us have been working hard to bring about a reverse Customs structure. It was included in the recently passed appropriations bill. The Committee on Ways and Means reviewed this and wants to replace what was passed with the language that is in this bill, and I have been assured that this change does not in any way affect the substance of what was included in the appropriation package, and it will not impede in any way the important implementation of the reverse Customs program. I cannot emphasize strongly enough the significance of that experiment. So, therefore, I support the provision in the bill.

We are moving forward today; and as I understand it, there are other important technical corrections that will still have to be made in the future. Let me say just a word about one provision that is not included, and that is the provision that was requested by the distinguished gentlewoman from the Virgin Islands (Mrs. CHRISTENSEN). She is going to say a few words about this after I finish. The gentleman from New York (Mr. RANGEL), our distinguished leader, also has a strong view about that.

Let me say a word also about a provision that I think will come up at a later date regarding permanent normal trade relations as to Moldova and Armenia. Recognizing that both countries have acceded to the WTO, we will be working on this in the future. The Turkey Qualified Industrial Zone provision is not in this bill. Let me say just a word about this. We have discussed it before. It is likely at some later date that we will see some legislation regarding QIZs as it relates to Turkey, and I think we should proceed with it; but I want to again reiterate to the administration the importance of a broadened provision relating to the QIZ and Turkey. The QIZ provides benefits that in some ways are deeper and broader than those in the GSP program; and it effectively replaces the GSP program. However, unlike GSP, the QIZ statute does not include any conditionality, whether it relates to the protection of U.S. investors or respect for core labor standards or protection of intellectual property rights; and, again, I would hope that the administration would commit itself to working on including these criteria.

The gentleman from Maryland (Mr. CARDIN) is going to speak about Yugoslavia, Serbia, and Montenegro. He has worked very hard on this. I applaud his efforts, and I am glad that we have worked this out.

So we should proceed today with this bill. It has been tailored according to the basic rules regarding miscellaneous tariff bills, and I would hope that we can pass it as we did last time.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. CRANE. Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. LEVIN. Mr. Speaker, I yield such time as he may consume to the gentleman from New York (Mr. RANGEL), our distinguished ranking leader.

Mr. RANGEL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to use my time to talk a little bit with the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. CRANE), the chairman of the Subcommittee on Trade.

First I want to thank the gentleman for including the technical corrections raising the personal duty exemption for travelers returning from the Caribbean basin region to $800 so that the Caribbean basin region is not at a disadvantage with the rest of the world. But I want to further inquire whether the chairman would continue to consider making a similar correction for the U.S. insular possession including the United States Virgin Islands so that we can preserve the historic balance in personal duty exemptions. Doing so will ensure that we do not damage the Virgin Islands or other of the U.S. insular possession economies which have so heavily depended on tourism. I appreciate the spirit in which the chairman has always looked at these technical corrections, and I ask him to consider making the correction as it relates to our citizens in this area.

Mr. CRANE. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. RANGEL. I yield to the gentleman from Illinois.

Mr. CRANE. Mr. Speaker, I commend the gentleman for making the request, and I can assure him that we will study and consider the faction policy related to the gentlewoman's request and that in conference we have an opportunity potentially to go down that path.

Mr. RANGEL. Mr. Speaker, I want to thank the gentleman for this and past considerations.

Mr. CRANE. Mr. Speaker, I yield 3 minutes to the distinguished gentleman from Texas (Mr. BRADY).

Mr. BRADY of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in support of the Miscellaneous Trade and Technical Corrections Act of 2003 which we are debating right now. The goal of the legislation is to make U.S. manufacturers, our American companies, more competitive, and strengthen the jobs of the workers that they employ. We do this by reducing or eliminating some of the import duties on materials and products used in production of goods and services here in America.

I am especially pleased that the bill contains legislation that I have authored in the past to change duty drawback and other trade laws in order to make the way they work less complicated and much easier to administer, both by the businesses here in the country and by our U.S. Customs Service. The goal of that and I think the result of that is that we will ease some of the regulatory burdens and some of the paperwork burdens imposed currently on U.S. companies.

The way duty drawback works is that if you are an American company and you bring a product in from overseas in order to manufacture and then sell it back outside the country, if you bring it into the country, we charge you a duty, say, of $10 on this widget.

When you manufacture it yourself, a similar product, or put it into yours and sell it back outside the country, you get a refund on that duty, so that you are competitive and your products do not cost too much more, or you are at least competitive with foreign companies when you are selling product outside this Nation.

Drawback levels the playing fields, allows U.S. companies to remain competitive, strengthens jobs and overall helps us compete in a world where competition is very fierce.

Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to support this legislation.

Mr. LEVIN. Mr. Speaker, I yield 3 minutes to the distinguished gentleman from the Virgin Islands (Mrs. Christensen), who is going to follow up on the colloquy between the gentleman from New York (Mr. RANGEL) and the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. CRANE).

Mrs. CHRISTENSEN. Mr. Speaker, I thank the ranking member from Michigan for yielding me time.

Mr. Speaker, I rise today to raise concerns of the government of the U.S. Virgin Islands regarding provisions in the technical corrections bill relating to the amount of personal duty exemption for U.S. travelers returning from abroad. The technical correction in the pending bill fails to reflect long-standing Congressional policy to afford a two to one advantage to the U.S. insular possessions in the amount of this exemption.

Tourism is the most important economic sector and is indeed the linchpin of our economy. A critical part of the U.S. tourism base economy in the Virgin Islands is our main street economy, the merchants who sell a wide range of goods to returning U.S. tourists and cruise ship passengers.

A key consideration in travel to the U.S. Virgin Islands as well as in the purchase decisions by U.S. tourists is the amount of personal duty exemption for returning U.S. travelers. Differences in the amount of the personal duty exemption particularly affect the decisions of Caribbean cruise ship passengers who enjoy shopping in a number of different jurisdictions.

For many years it has been consistent U.S. policy to encourage U.S. tourists to make purchases in the U.S. Virgin Islands and other insular possessions by providing a higher duty exemption for insular possession purchases as compared with purchases in other travel destinations. Historically, the insular possessions have enjoyed at least a two to one advantage over these jurisdictions.

In 2002, Congress increased the duty exemption for travelers returning from non-Caribbean jurisdictions from $400 to $800 dollars. However, the duty exemptions for purchases made in the CBI countries and the U.S. insular possessions were not changed, but were kept at $600 and $1,200 respectively.

In a partial effort to correct this, a technical correction provision in the pending bill would increase the duty exemption for CBI purchases to $800. However, the bill makes no change in the duty exemption for insular possession purchases.

This legislation would results in a significant change to long standing U.S. policy. It would abandoned the two to one advantage that Congress has traditionally provided to the insular possessions and would seriously harm our economy and the livelihood of many of our citizens.

For these reasons, the government of the Virgin Islands urges that the duty exemption for purchases in the insular possessions be revised to reflect the long-standing policy and be increased to $1,600.

I want to take this opportunity to thank the ranking member, the gentleman from New York (Mr. RANGEL) and both the Chair and the ranking member of the subcommittee for their support. I have also discussed these concerns with the chairman of the committee, and I hope that they will be addressed in the anticipated conference on this important legislation.

Mr. LEVIN. Mr. Speaker, I yield 4 minutes to the gentleman from Maryland (Mr. CARDIN), a very distinguished member of the Committee on Ways and Means.

(Mr. CARDIN asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks, and include extraneous material.)

Mr. CARDIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to bring attention to this body of one provision that is in this bill that deals with extending normal trade relations to Serbia and Montenegro. When this issue was before the Committee on Ways and Means, I offered an amendment that was adopted by the committee that placed conditionality on the normal trade relations based upon cooperation by Serbia and Montenegro with the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia.

Mr. Speaker, it is important to move forward in our relations with Serbia, but it is also important to remember the past. There were war crimes committed in the former Yugoslavia where individuals were murdered, mass murders, dislocation of people, solely because of their ethnic background. There are individuals who have been indicted by the war crimes tribunal that have not been turned over to the Hague. General Mladic and Karadzic were involved in mass murders of innocent people, they were lined up and murdered, and yet they still remain free, even though they are indicted. We needful cooperation with the tribunal, including the turning over of documents and the availability of witnesses.

Mr. Speaker, I am pleased that we were able to reach an understanding where the conditionality on this legislation could be removed by additional commitments made by the government of Serbia-Montenegro.

I will make part of the record a letter that I have received. I would like to quote very quickly part of that letter, where the Foreign Minister says, "I would like to assure you that there is a strong and clear political will of the authorities in Serbia and Montenegro to cooperate with International Criminal Tribunal. Obviously, the most pressing concern is the issue of the arrest and transfer to the Hague of the indicted individuals, in particular General Mladic and those indicted for the crimes at Vukovar. You may rest assure that the resolution of this issue figures high on the agenda of all office holders in Serbia and Montenegro. Furthermore, the institutions of the state union of Serbia and Montenegro, which will be formed in the coming days, will have the opportunity to further contribute to perfecting the cooperation of the ICTY in this regard."

Mr. Speaker, I would also bring to your attention a letter I received from Secretary of State Powell, where he points out that the FY 2003 Foreign Operations Appropriations Act once again conditions U.S. assistance to the Republic of Serbia. These conditions have been useful in maintaining pressure on Belgrade to comply with its obligations to the ICTU. I can assure you that the Department of State will continue to use every available tool to achieve cooperation with the International Criminal Tribunal by the governments of Serbia and Montenegro.

Mr. Speaker, I want to thank the gentleman from New Jersey (Chairman SMITH) of the Helsinki Commission, the gentleman from Maryland (Mr. HOYER), who has been extremely helpful in this issue, the gentlewoman from New York (Mrs. LOWEY) from the Committee on Appropriations, the staff at the Helsinki committee, the Coalition for International Justice, and Ambassador Prosper, who is our Ambassador at Large for War Crimes, for their cooperation in order to be able to work out further cooperation with the tribunal.

I also want to thank the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. CRANE) and the gentleman from Michigan (Mr. LEVIN) for their patience. I know that we have been working on this for a long time, and I appreciate very much giving us the opportunity to work this out.

Congress has played a critical role on advancing human rights, whether it was Jackson-Vanik or the conditionality of foreign aid to governments to make sure that they comply with human rights issues. We have played an active role. We need to continue to play that role. I am proud of the role that this body has played in advancing human rights issues, including compliance with the International Criminal Tribunal.

Mr. Speaker, I include for the record the letter from the Minister for Foreign Affairs of Serbia and Montenegro.

SERBIA AND MONTENEGRO,
MINISTER FOR FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

Hon. BENJAMIN L. CARDIN,
House of Representatives,
Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. CARDIN: I appreciate very much your continuing interest in the issues related to Serbia and Montenegro and its relations with the United States. I still remember fondly our last telephone conversation in which we had the opportunity to discuss these matters.

At the moment, one of the most pressing issues in this regard remains extending Normal Trade Relations Treatment (NTR) to Serbia and Montenegro, which is part of the Miscellaneous Trade and Technical Corrections Act 2003. Extending NTR treatment would provide substantial support to continuing economic reforms in my country which, in turn, would help the consolidation of our democracy.

I am fully aware of your genuine and well-intentioned concerns with regard to the co-operation of Serbia and Montenegro with the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia (ICTY). I would like to assure you that there is strong and clear political will of the authorities in Serbia and Montenegro to cooperate with the ICTY.

Obviously, the most pressing concern is the issue of arrest and transfer to the Hague of the indicted individuals, in particular Gen. Mladic and those indicted for the crimes in Vukovar. You may rest assured that the resolution of this issue figures high on the agenda of all office holders in Serbia and Montenegro. Furthermore, the institutions of the state union of Serbia and Montenegro, which will be formed in the coming days, will have the opportunity to further contribute to perfecting the cooperation with the ICTY in this regard.

At the same time, it should be noted that there has been a substantial progress in other aspects of our cooperation with the ICTY, i.e., in providing documents and access to witnesses. Serbia and Montenegro has provided effective assistance to the ICTY in relation to locating, interviewing and testimony of witnesses. In this respect, we have so far fully responded to almost 90% of the requests for assistance. In particular, we have provided waivers for more than 100 officials of the former government to testify about classified matters before the ICTY. These include top officials such as two former presidents of the FRY, heads of military and police security services, as well as many high-ranking military and police officers.

As regards the documents requested by the ICTY, we have presented thousands of pages of documentation, including confidential records of the Supreme Defence Council, which is the commander-in-chief of the Yugoslav Army. I would like to assure you that we are determined to cooperate even more effectively with the ICTY in relation to documents and witnesses, and most notably, with regard to the transfer of indictees. Further promotion of democracy and economic prosperity of my country would only create a more favorable climate for such cooperation. In this regard, extending NTR treatment would be a welcome signal that Serbia and Montenegro have the support of the United States and would bring tangible benefits to our economy and people.

I am confident that you will take this information into account while assessing the level of cooperation with the ICTY, and as a result support the initiative to extend NTR treatment to Serbia and Montenegro.

Sincerely,

GORAN SVILANOVIC.

NON-PAPER

Serbia and Montenegro believes that all individuals responsible for international crimes should be brought to justice, either before international courts, such as the ICTY, or before national courts. In particular, as a UN Member, Serbia and Montenegro recognizes its obligation to cooperate with the JCTY. Consequently, the FRY has adopted the Law on Co-operation with the ICTY on 11 April 2002, which regulates the legal framework for cooperation.

Fifteen indictees who were on the territory of the FRY were brought into the custody of the ICTY. The Federal Republic of Yugoslavia arrested and surrendered 6 indictees, including Slobodan Milosevic, former president of the FRY and Serbia. The others are Milomir Stakic, former Chief of the Crisis Staff of Prijedor Municipality, Republika Srpska (RS), and four combatants of the RS Army: Drazen Erdemovic, Predrag Banovic, Nenad Benovic i Ranko Cesic.

At the same time, 10 indictees have been encouraged to voluntarily surrender to the ICTY and they eventually did so. These are:

1. Dragoljub Ojdanic, General, former Chief of the General Staff of the Yugoslav Army and former Federal Minister of Defence.
2. Nikola Sainovic, former Deputy-Prime Minister of the FRY.
3. Mile Mrksjc, Major-General, Yugoslav Army.
4. Pavle Strugar, Lieutenant-General, Yugoslav Army.
5. Miodrag Jokic, Vice-Admiral, Yugoslav Army.
6. Milan Martic, former Serb leader in Croatia.
7. Blagoie Simic, Head of the Bosanski Samac, RS, Crisis Staff.
8. Momcilo Gruban, Deputy Commander of the Omarska camp, RS.
9. Milan Milutinovic, former President of the Republic of Serbia.
10. Vojislav Seselj, leader of the Serbian Radical Party.

National courts have issued arrest warrants for additional 17 accused whose arrest has been sought by the ICTY. One indictee (Vlajko Stojiljkovic, former Minister of Internal Affairs of Serbia committed suicide.

Serbia and Montenegro has provided effective assistance to the Prosecutor and the ICTY with relation to locating, interviewing and testifying of suspects and witnesses. In that respect, Serbia and Montenegro has, so far, answered to 76 different requests and provided information for as many as 150 suspects and witnesses. Out of 126 witnesses for whom the waivers were requested, Serbia and Montenegro has granted 108 (86%), while others are in procedure.

In the Milosevic case, the FRY and Serbia government decided to allow more than 87 of the former and current state officials and employees to testify with relation to the Kosovo indictment, even about the matters that constitute military and state secrets.

Zoran Lilic, the former President of the FRY, has been given waiver to testify in the Milosevic case on the matters defined after consultations between the Prosecutor and the FRY and related to the events covered by the Croatia, Bosnia and Kosovo indictments.

Dobrica Cosic, former President of the FRY, as well as Nebojsa Pavkovic, former Chief of the General staff of the Yugoslav Army have also been given waiver to testify in the Milosevic case and related to the events covered by the Croatia, Bosnia and Kosovo indictments.

Regarding documents that have been sought by the ICTY Prosecutor (127), the FRY has answered, so far, to 65 requests, to 9 partially and 53 are currently processed. The documents transmitted to the Prosecution include:

Confidential military documents of the Supreme Defense Council, the Commander-in-chief of the Yugoslav Army;

Certain confidential regulations of the Yugoslav Army;

All available official records related to the Racak massacre, in relation to the Kosovo indictment against Milosevic;

All available personal information about Ratko Mladic, the former Commander of the Army;

Of Republika Srpska;

Information on all investigations and judicial proceedings initiated against members of the Serbian Ministry of Internal Affairs for crimes committed in Kosovo and Metohija;

Official records of the Yugoslav National Bank relating to a company allegedly involved in trading arms during the conflict in Bosnia and Herzegovina;

The authorities of Serbia and Montenegro have continued to investigate mass graves near Batajnica. This is done in the presence of the ICTY investigators on site, and the evidence obtained is regularly transferred to the ICTY Prosecutor.

There have been investigations and judicial proceedings before Yugoslav courts for violations of international humanitarian law:

There is a number of criminal proceedings before military courts against individuals indicted for crimes in Kosovo and Metohija in 1999. The judicial proceeding against Sasa Cvjetan and Dejan Demirovit, members of the special corps "Scorpions", have also been initiated before the Court in Belgrade, for the crimes committed in Kosovo. In the District court in Prokuplje, Serbia, Ivan Nikolic, a reserve soldier with the Yugoslav Army, was sentenced to 8 years of imprisonment for the killing of two Kosovo-Albanian civilians.

Criminal proceeding before the Belgrade District Court are currently under way for the abduction of Bosniacs from the village of Sjeverin in 1992 (Case of Dragoljub Dragicevic and others).

In another case, Nebojsa Ranisavljevic was convicted to 15 years of imprisonment for his role in the notorious case of abduction of Muslim passengers from the train in Supci station in 1993.

Mr. LEVIN. Mr. Speaker, I yield 3 minutes to the gentleman from Texas (Mr. DOGGETT), another distinguished Member of the Committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. DOGGETT. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding me time.

Mr. Speaker, this Administration has refused to account to the American people for the probable cost in both blood and money of a massive land invasion of Iraq. One of the most bizarre aspects of events in recent weeks has been the bazaar that has been going on in Turkey, where the Administration has sought to buy a "coalition of the willing." This bill appears to be a part of that effort.

The Turkish provision, which I questioned last year in committee because the same treatment was not being accorded to Armenia, has, according to the chairman, been dropped from this bill. Apparently, action on trade with Turkey has little to do with what is good trade policy, but everything to do with what constitutes good policy to create a "coalition of the billing."

When Turkey was to be a member of that coalition, it was in the trade bill. Now that its parliament has voted to deny the use of its land for an invasion of Iraq, when over 90 percent of the people of Turkey oppose that invasion, the provision has been unceremoniously stripped from the bill.

Indeed, more and more Americans watching this, and perhaps it is not a very good play on words, are asking, "How much gravy does Turkey really need?" The trade benefits that were in this bill are in addition to what is apparently $15 billion to $30 billion of American tax dollars that will be given to the Turks.

Surely if we had $15 billion to $30 billion we could apply it to strengthen our veterans' health care system. Could we not take some of that $15 billion to $30 billion and use it for the $9 billion on which the President broke his word when he said he would provide full funding for the "Left No Child Behind Act" and now says we lack enough money to fund?

I think when President Kennedy talked about "paying any price in the defense of liberty" in his inaugural address, he did not have in mind this bill and the bidding at the bazaar in Turkey, and in other countries, has been about.

It seems to me that the "shuttle diplomacy" in which the first President Bush worked so effectively to build an international coalition against Iraq (even though he stopped short) in the first Gulf war seems to have been replaced with "checkbook diplomacy" and bills like this.

If only the American people could learn how much of our taxpayer dollars are being diverted from education and veterans' health care and other needs within the United States to give it to the Turks and the other people who vote on the U.N. Security Council. I wish we knew those totals. We cannot find out the cost of the war in either blood or money. We cannot even find out the cost of the bribes that are being paid to get a coalition to join us.

So, I will vote for this bill, but I think the Turkish provision ought to be considered on its merits, rather than unceremoniously dropped for reasons that have nothing to do with good trade policy.

Mr. CRANE. Mr. Speaker, I yield 3 minutes to the distinguished gentleman from Michigan (Mr. CAMP).

Mr. CAMP. Mr. Speaker, I thank the chairman for yielding me time.

Mr. Speaker, I rise today in support of the Miscellaneous Trade and Technical Corrections Act of 2003. I am particularly pleased about the inclusion of a provision which will help make the United States-Canada border significantly more secure.

In the aftermath of the attacks on our Nation, the level of security concerns along its 5,000 mile northern border have taken on an added urgency. Reverse inspections will safeguard international bridges and tunnels along the border. This process will ensure that potentially dangerous vehicles are inspected before crossing those bridges and tunnels.

Inspecting vehicles for dangerous contents such as bombs and explosives after they enter our tunnels or begin to cross our bridges is inadequate. The reverse customs provision in this legislation aims to enact a principle of the U.S.-Canada Smart Border Declaration negotiated by then Homeland Security Director Tom Ridge and Canada's Minister of Foreign Affairs John Manley last year. In this Declaration, both countries agreed to create a new secure and smart border based on an action plan that includes a host of new security measures.

I agree with the principles of the U.S.-Canada Smart Border Declaration, and I believe that the inclusion of the reverse inspections component in this bill will greatly lower the risk of future attacks on our bridges and tunnels. Bridges and tunnels, particularly for Michigan, a border state, are vital to facilitating tourism and trade, two critical factors for Michigan's economy.

Mr. LEVIN. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I have spelled out the reasons for the passage of this bill. I urge that we vote for it.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. CRANE. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I just want to wrap up with a couple of comments about the comfort of advancing a trade piece of legislation like this in the Congress of the United States, where we enjoy good bipartisan support.

I want to commend my colleagues on the other side of the aisle who were the ones that were touting to Republicans the importance of free trade. It took almost a century for our party to yield to the very persuasive arguments advanced by free traders on the Democratic side, and after World War II we basically became free traders, too.

I know we have divisions in our ranks on both sides of the aisle; but I know, too, that trade is one of the most important issues facing not only this country but the entire world. I have made the comment in the past, and it bears repeating, that trade has done more to advance civilized values worldwide than anything else in the span of recorded history; so I commend my colleagues on a bipartisan basis.

Mr. Speaker, I ask for an "aye" vote on this very important piece of legislation.

Ms. MCCARTHY of Missouri. Mr. Speaker, today I rise in strong support of H.R. 1047, the Miscellaneous Trade & Technical Corrections Act. This bill contains a variety of provisions that temporarily suspend or reduce duties for certain imported products that are not produced domestically, streamline current customs laws, and make technical corrections to trade laws.

The bill suspends the duty of several products which are not produced domestically. Most of the time, tariffs are in place to protect domestic industries from foreign competitors, which can often undercut prices because of cheap labor or lax environmental standards. This bill rightfully suspends and/or reduces the tariffs on imported ingredients to domestically produced products. The reduction of 12 tariffs relating to ingredients of pesticides produced by the Bayer Corporation in Kansas City, maintain jobs in my district.

In addition, H.R. 1047 gives the President the authority to restore Normal Trade Relations to the former Yugoslavian Republics of Serbia and Montenegro when they are confirmed to cooperate with the International War Crimes Tribunal and the Dayton Peace Accords. Following Serb aggression in Bosnia and Croatia, NTR was withdrawn in 1992. I look forward to a day when Serbia and Montenegro can again become normal trading partners to the benefit of all countries.

H.R. 1047 authorizes the Customs Service to work with Canada to increase security at vulnerable U.S. cross border bridges and tunnels by allowing U.S. Customs officials to be stationed on the Canadian side of the border to inspect vehicles. This preemptive approach will help stop smugglers before they enter our country.

The bill makes several corrections to the Sub-Saharan Africa Free Trade Act of 2002. It clarifies that duty free treatment should be granted to apparel created from U.S. and regional components but formed in sub-Saharan African countries. This will provide a much needed boost to the economies of these nations.

I commend the Chairman and Ranking Member of the Ways and Means Committee for their bipartisan approach to this bill. I urge my colleagues to join me in supporting H.R. 1047 to ease unnecessary Customs restrictions and improve the ability of domestic companies to produce goods for all of the world to enjoy.

Mr. BLUMENAUER. Mr. Speaker, H.R. 1047, debated and passed today, includes language that allows two streetcars manufactured in the Czech Republic to enter the United States duty free. These streetcars are additional to the recently opened and highly successful Portland, Oregon streetcar line. I would like to take this opportunity to thank the Ways and Means Committee Members and staff for working with me to solve a problem that would have led to unnecessary tariffs on these two streetcars.

As Congress prepares this year to reauthorize the surface transportation act, TEA-21, we will need to continue to craft innovative solutions to help the hundreds of communities nationwide that are working to address transportation needs and options. Portland's success in creating new streetcar service to connect and revitalize its neighborhoods is a model being sought by dozens of other communities. Creating a trade import model that helps communities explore such transportation alternatives will greatly improve the livability of our cities.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. SIMPSON). The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. CRANE) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 1047.

The question was taken.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. In the opinion of the Chair, two-thirds of those present have voted in the affirmative.

Mr. CRANE. Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX and the Chair's prior announcement, further proceedings on this motion will be postponed.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. CRANE. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days in which to revise and extend their remarks and to include extraneous material on the subject of H.R. 1047, the bill just considered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Illinois?

There was no objection.

COMMENDING MEMBERS OF UNITED STATES ARMED FORCES AND THEIR FAMILIES FOR SELFLESS SERVICE DURING GLOBAL WAR ON TERRORISM

Mr. HUNTER. Mr. Speaker, pursuant to the order of the House of Tuesday, March 4, 2003, I call up the joint resolution (H.J. Res. 27) recognizing and commending the continuing dedication, selfless service, and commitment of members of the Armed Forces and their families during the Global War on Terrorism and in defense of the United States, and ask for its immediate consideration in the House.

The Clerk read the title of the joint resolution.

The text of House Joint Resolution 27 is as follows:

H.J. RES. 27

Whereas the Global War on Terrorism began in response to the unprovoked terrorist attack on the United States homeland on September 11, 2001, which resulted in the deaths of thousands of United States citizens;

Whereas Al Qaeda, which attacked the United States on September 11, 2001, remains a threat to the national security of the United States;

Whereas the members of the Armed Forces of the United States, a total force comprised of active, National Guard, and Reserve personnel, have undertaken more than 17 months of courageous and successful operations against terrorism, not only in Afghanistan, but also worldwide;

Whereas since September 11, 2001, members of the United States Armed Forces have promoted homeland security throughout the United States by performing various missions, including providing security at the Nation's airports, protecting the public at special events, and patrolling the Nation's skies with combat air patrols;

Whereas members of the Armed Forces are helping around the world to train the militaries of other nations in counter-terrorism operations;

Whereas these post-September 11, 2001, missions have been in addition to other regular military missions and have been performed without any permanent increase in the size of the Armed Forces;

Whereas more than 65 American servicemembers have died defending the Nation in the Global War on Terrorism and more than 210 have been wounded or injured;

Whereas nearly 225,000 members of the National Guard and Reserve components have been mobilized for active duty since the start of the Global War on Terrorism, of whom more than 166,000 remain on active duty, with thousands facing a second year of active duty away from families and civilian employment;

Whereas more than 200,000 active-duty personnel have already been deployed to the Persian Gulf theater and thousands of Reservists and National Guard members have been alerted for mobilization or are deploying for a possible war with Iraq;

Whereas many employers in the Nation find their employees called to active duty in the National Guard and Reserve, and are themselves called upon in the spirit of patriotism to maintain job security for those mobilized personnel and their families;

Whereas the ability of members of the Armed Forces to perform their missions requires the support and sacrifice of their families and the commitment to go wherever the Nation needs them;

Whereas the Nation is engaged in an unprecedented global conflict that presents many new and dangerous challenges to the members of the Armed Forces; and

Whereas this global conflict will require the Nation's unflinching resolve and commitment to provide the Nation's soldiers, sailors, airmen, and marines with the necessary resources required for victory: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Congress—

(1) commends, and expresses the gratitude of the Nation to, all members of the United States Armed Forces (whether on active duty, in the National Guard, or in the Reserves) who are fighting the Global War on Terrorism;

(2) commends, and expresses the gratitude of the Nation to, the employers who in the spirit of patriotism maintain the job security of their mobilized National Guard and Reserve employees;

(3) commends, and expresses the gratitude of the Nation to, the families of those servicemembers who have borne the burden of separation from their loved ones and who have staunchly supported them during the conduct of the Global War on Terrorism;

(4) expresses its condolences to the families of the brave American servicemembers who have lost their lives defending the Nation in the Global War on Terrorism; and

(5) reaffirms that it stands united with the President in the ongoing effort to defeat global terrorism.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the order of the House of Tuesday, March 4, 2003, the gentleman from California (Mr. HUNTER) and the gentleman from Missouri (Mr. SKELTON) each will control 30 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from California (Mr. HUNTER).

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. HUNTER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks on the joint resolution under consideration.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

Mr. HUNTER. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, since the start of the global war on terrorism, a saga has unfolded marked by the dedication, selfless service, and commitment of the members of the Armed Forces and their families. Now, on the eve of a potential war with Iraq, the Nation is about to ask our Armed Forces and their families for additional sacrifices.

For these reasons, my great colleague, the gentleman from Missouri (Mr. SKELTON), and I thought it was only fitting that we offer this joint resolution to send a message to our Armed Forces of our support and appreciation for their magnificent efforts.

Mr. Speaker, the U.S. Armed Forces, a total force of active National Guard and Reserve volunteers, have conducted more than 17 months of courageous and successful operations against terrorism, not only in Afghanistan, but also worldwide. Beyond that, they have secured the U.S. homeland by performing various missions, including patrolling the Nation's airports, protecting the public at special events, and flying combat air patrols in the Nation's skies.

Today, more than 200,000 active duty personnel are already deployed to the Persian Gulf, and thousands of Reservists and National Guard members are on alert for mobilization or are deploying for a possible war with Iraq.

All these missions are in addition to other regular military requirements and have significantly increased the pace of operations and the stress on our forces. There have been no permanent increases in the size of the Armed Forces to meet these new requirements. Instead, our military forces are being required to work longer, harder, and smarter.

One enduring mark of the sacrifices being made in this war on terrorism by our men and women in uniform is that 67 American servicemembers have died defending the Nation, and 212 have been wounded or injured.

Untold sacrifices are being asked of the nearly 225,000 members of the National Guard and Reserve who have been mobilized for active duty since the start of the global war on terrorism. More than 174,000 of them remain on active duty, with thousands facing a second year of active duty away from their families and civilian employment.

America is able to make a substantial commitment of its citizen soldiers to this war because many of the Nation's employers, in the spirit of patriotism, are maintaining job security for those mobilized personnel and their families. Whether the members of the Armed Forces are active, Guard, or Reserve, their ability to perform their missions requires the continuing support and sacrifice of their families.

Mr. Speaker, the Nation is engaged in a global conflict that presents many
